In-Home Support

Do you know anyone who has mixed an incorrect amount of chemicals before cleaning or spraying a paddock?

Do you need help navigating the online world?

Have you ever found it difficult to complete or understand an official form?

Would you like to access some help for your children with their home work?

The program aims to provide tailored assistance to those who may need support with literacy, digital literacy and numeracy.

This training can provide up to 15 hours of training, on a 1:1 basis, per household, to address any areas that may effect your life. This free training can support you, a partner or even children.
